

Understanding the Path of Those Who Wander General Course

Location: LIVE Interactive Webinar

Date: TBD

Time: 3:00pm – 5:00pm ET

Course Description: During this LIVE Interactive Webinar workshop, participants will build knowledge on Alzheimer's disease and explore symptoms that can lead a person to go out in search of something outside of their current setting. Participants will have the opportunity to explore what it may be like to walk in the shoes of someone who is wandering to build empathy and insight into this behavior. In addition, this workshop will explore the signs and symptoms that can lead to challenges and identify strategies to better engage the individual in meaningful living and provide purpose to reduce risk and increase safety. This workshop is fully interactive. Attendees may ask and answer questions throughout the presentation and participate in instructor-led discussions, as well as case vignette discussions, and a Q&A session at the end.

From this workshop you will learn to:

1. Demonstrate an understanding of Alzheimer's disease signs and symptoms, including wandering.
2. Describe what it may be like to walk in the shoes of someone wandering through examining known triggers and behaviors.
3. Explain the different types of wandering to better understand the root cause.
4. Identify strategies that will lead to improved quality of life and ensure needs are met to reduce the risk of wandering.

Course Agenda:

3:00pm-3:30pm – Overview of Alzheimer's disease signs and symptoms

3:30pm-4:15pm – Understanding behaviors and triggers

4:15pm-5:00pm – Strategies to reduce risk and maintain safety

Program Goals and Target Audience: To educate CCM board-certified case managers, social workers, paraprofessionals, and health care professionals of all levels about dementia care and supporting those affected by dementia-related illnesses.

Content Level: Beginner, Intermediate

Presenter Bio: Jennifer Reeder, LCSW, SIFI

Jennifer Reeder is the Director of Education and Social Services for the Alzheimer's Foundation of America. This includes overseeing AFA's National Toll-Free Helpline staffed by licensed social workers, and community class programs all instructed by various therapists and educators. Ms. Reeder graduated in 2011 from Temple University with a Masters of Social Work, and entered the not-for-profit sector providing in-home therapy to families in the Philadelphia area for over 9 years. She is proud to now be supporting individuals and families affected by Alzheimer's and dementia-related illnesses while providing clinical guidance to the licensed social workers of AFA. She encourages engagement and peer support from attendees, while drawing from real life situations to enhance the learning process.
